Weaving a lively fabric of tales

Rave Reviews

"I have been teaching drama for 15 years and it's so refreshing to take a master class where I learn new strategies and techniques to do with my students."

-Joanna Lewton, Drama Teacher, Capital City Public Charter School
Washington DC

"This was on of the best, if not the best, program we have heard in the past ten years' offerings for Reading night."

-Rochell H. Grey, Media Specialist, Quantico Middle School, VA

"...using a story-within-a-story to captivate her audience ... The Indian Storytelling Adventure was a hit with the kids who attended the program,"

-The Silver Spring Gazette, MD

"She had them right in the palm of her hand."

-Bonsetta Hairston, Teacher, Mt. Vernon Woods Elementary School, VA

"Her stories always contain a smile and an energy, which compels others to laugh and rise above their problems."

-Bansi Kaul, Director, Rang Vidushak, Bhopal, India

"Thank you for inspiring me to remember how I used to teach."

-Jen Flores, 1st Grade Teacher, Barrett Elementary School, VA

"They sat in awe! She exceeded our expectations. We want her back next year!!"

-Adrian Blount, Administrator, Ideal Academy, Washington DC

"She creates an environment where the children feel safe to take risks and grow from their mistakes. It is with her soft yet strong voice that guides the children."

-Franklin Wassmer, Principal Children's Studio School, Washington DC
