

Arianna Ross

story tapestries

Short Biography for Story Tapestries: Arianna Ross

Story Tapestries: Arianna Ross creates entertaining, international, dynamic programs that weave the power of dance, theatre, music, spoken word and storytelling together. We can offer you an entertaining evening at the theatre for adults and children as well as an engaging event during the day filled with learning and fun through a variety of outreach programs. For over 12 years, we have performed in the US, India, Vietnam, Brazil and Canada on stage, television, and radio, in colleges, concert halls, and hospitals. We have taught for critically acclaimed organizations such as the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, the Smithsonian, and Towson University. Recently, Story Tapestries: Arianna Ross was one of the featured performers at 2008 Minnesota Fringe Festival, The Faberge Egg Festival in Washington DC, The Just Stories Festival in Chicago and at the Vancouver, BC International Storytelling Festival.

Weaving a lively fabric of tales storyteller

artist-educator

dancer